Black Moreen and Black Satteen, $1.00

Splendid qualities, cut full and wide.

We could just as well have gotten $1.25 for them, as the garments are regular dellar and a quarter values, but we've marked them $1.00 as a Pettleoat leader.

The Moreens have a deep flounce and a narrow hemstitched ruffle. The Satteens have a '12-inch hemstitched ruffle. Nice work on both garments.

CHILDREN ON THE STAGE. Winsome Lassies Appear in Legend of the Catskills.

Legend of the Catskills" presented last night at the Academy to presented last night at the Academy to a small audience. The play is a rearrangement of Washington Irving's famous story of Rip Van Winkle, and presents Pete Baker in the character of Rip. The two juvenile parts of Meerrie Van Winkle and Rip Van Winkle, Jr., were pleasingly portrayed by Olivette and Grace Norman, winsome little girls. George Britt, as a young American, did well, and his songs are pleasing, though the performance as a whole was disappointing.

"The Legend of the Catskills" will be given this afternoon and to-night.

ERECTING CHAPEL

Unitarians Will Soon Have a Building of Their Own

Building of Their Own

The congregation of the First Unitarian Church has begun the erection of its chapel at the corner of Floyd Avenue and Beach Street. The church, which, including the lot, will cost about $15,000, will be of the old colonial, plain brick style, with Virginia granite trimmings. Architecturally the building will be very attractive, and the commodious room, after Monroe Hall, and the sense of having their own church will be of great benefit and inspiration to the members of the congregation. The cornerstone will be laid in the near future, and the chapel will be dedicated January 1, 1905. The pastor of the church is Rev. John L. Robinson, who came to Richmond about a year and a half ago.

The contract was awarded to the Mankin Construction Company, and the architect is Arthur J. Russell, of Boston Mass. The electric road from Richmond to Ashland is in a fair way to be pushed to completion, for the route has been definitely decided upon, and condemnation proceedings have been begun to obtain the right of way through the properties which could not be purchased.

There has been some delay occasioned by the difficulty of selecting the route. Three separate surveys were made, and in addition a plan was considered that took in the coal fields above Westhampston. The main difficulty, however, was, the prohibility price asked for a right of way by the owners of Westbrook, who demanded $50,000.

Condemnation notices will be served on Mrs. Minnle E. Yorng, of New York; Thomas E. Jeffress, of Richmond; George Arents, of New York; all of whom are interested in the Ginter estate.

The hearing is set for October 9th, when application will be made to Judge Scott, of the Henrico, Court, for the appointment of commissioners to condemn the necessary property and to fix the damages.

Amongst vothers whose property will also be condemned are Annle M. Beek, Henry and Alice Anderson, Isalah and Parker Jackson, Watter Fields, C. W. Childrey and Margaret F, Gibbs.

It is stated on good authority that all the equipment of the road has been ordered and that the cars will be larger and more comfortable than any now in use in this section.
